

General Science

CH: 3 Fibre to fabrics

Name: _____

Date: _____

Class: VII Sec: ____

I Fill in the blanks

1. The thick coat of hair on a sheep's body is called ----- . The process of obtaining silk fibre from cocoon is called _____ .
2. A pile of _____ is used for obtaining silk fibres.
3. The process of removal of fleece from the body of sheep is called _____ .
4. The process of obtaining silk fibre from cocoon is called _____ .
5. The country which is the largest producer of silk is _____ .

II. Choose the correct answer

6. The silk and wool are made of a kind of
 - a. Fats
 - b. Carbohydrates
 - c. Proteins
 - d. Vitamins
7. Which of the following is natural fibre?
 - a. Nylon
 - b. Rayon
 - c. Polyester

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET

d. Jute

8. Number of times the larva of silkworm moults is

a. 2 times

b. 3 times

c. 4 times

d. 1time

9. The fibre that burns readily with the smell of burning hair is

a) Wool b) silk c) cotton d) rayon

III. Answer the following

10. Classify the following fibres as synthetic, animal and plant fibre.

Wool, cotton, rayon, jute, silk, nylon, hemp, polyester

11. How is silk thread obtained from cocoon?

12. Write short notes on sorter's disease.

13. Explain briefly the life history of silk moth.

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA - WORKSHEET