Answer the following questions in 30-40 words:

1. Describe the narrator's first encounter with the white horse.
2. Write a short note about the character Khosrove.
3. How did Aram know that the horse belonged to John Byro?
4. What happened after Aram rode the horse alone?
5. What do we know about John Byro?
6. Give a brief description of the place where the narrator used to live.
7. How did the two boys build a connection with the white horse in those few days?
8. You will probably agree that this story does not have a breathless adventure and exciting action. Then what, in your opinion, makes it interesting?
9. How does the author describe the character of Mourad?
10. Did the boys return the horse because they were conscience-stricken or afraid?
11. The story revolves around characters who belong to a tribe in Armenia. Mourad and Aram are members of the Garoghlanian family. Now prepare a write-up on the Garoghlanian tribes. As suggested in the story, you may write about people, their names, traits, and geographical and economic features.
12. Bring out the significance of the white horse in Saroyan's story.
13. 'Have you come back?' said the woman. 'I thought that no one had come back.' Does this statement give some clue about the story? If yes, what is it?
14. Why did the narrator of the story want to forget the address?
15. Why did the narrator go to Number 46, in Marconi Street?
16. Comment on the title of Marga's story The Address.
17. How did the narrator and Mrs Dorling recognise each other?
18. Why did the old possessions of the narrator lose their value?
19. What was the narrator's reaction as she found herself in front of her old household things?
20. What is the present state of life for the narrator?
