

INDIAN SCHOOL NIZWA

Social Science Worksheet

Chapter 10
Grassroots Democracy – Part 1 Governance

Name:
Class : VI Section:.....

I. Choose the correct option.

1. Why do rules become necessary when a large number of people live together?

- a) To create more disagreements
- b) To maintain order and harmony in society
- c) To help people do whatever they want
- d) To make life more difficult

Ans:.....

2. Which of the following statements is incorrect?

- a) The process of taking decisions and organizing society's life is called governance.
- b) A government ensures that rules are followed.
- c) The government only makes rules for students.
- d) Some important rules are called laws.

Ans:.....

3. Why is the judiciary's role in reviewing decisions made by the executive important?

- a) It allows the judiciary to punish the executive.
- b) It ensures that the executive's decisions are fair and lawful.
- c) It prevents the legislature from making laws.
- d) It helps the judiciary make new laws

Ans:.....

4. Why it might be necessary for the legislature to update or remove existing laws?

- a) Old laws may not apply to new situations, such as cybercrime.
- b) The judiciary asks them to make new laws.
- c) The executive doesn't like old laws.
- d) The legislature only updates laws to create more work for courts.

Ans:.....

5. Choose the correct answer based on the statements below:

- a) Separation of powers ensures that one organ of government can dominate the others.
- b) Each organ of government has an expected role and must stay within that role.
- c) The three organs of government never interact with each other.
- d) Checks and balances mean that the government operates without oversight.

Ans:.....

II. Match the Following

Column A

1. Legislature
2. Executive
3. Judiciary
4. Cyber Police

Column B

- A. Implements laws
- B. Reviews laws and decides on punishments
- C. Makes new laws and updates existing ones
- D. Enforces law and order related to cybercrime

III. Fill in the blanks

- i. Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam was born in a humble family in _____, Tamil Nadu, in 1931.
- ii. He was nicknamed the ‘_____ Man of India’ for his crucial role in the development of India’s space programme.
- iii. Dr. Abdul Kalam served as the _____ President of India from 2002 to 2007.
- iv. Dr. Kalam encouraged young Indians to dream big and work hard to achieve their _____.
- v. His position as the President of India was nominal, but he played an important role, impacting countless _____.
- vi. He was renowned for his contributions to India’s missile programme and capabilities.

IV. Complete the table by categorizing each of the following responsibilities under the Central Government or State Government based on their functions and responsibilities of the Executive. Use the words provided below.

[illegible]